Make an impact and volunteer in your community!

Joining JLOEB provides many benefits, the most significant of which is the personal satisfaction that comes from making a positive contribution to your community while making long-lasting friendships. As a member of our League, you will volunteer in Contra Costa and Alameda Counties, develop new leadership skills, and build stronger communities.

Build lifelong relationships!

Build relationships with a diverse group of dedicated, talented women. Volunteer with East Bay organizations and communities to achieve a common goal. Receive training and sharpen your skills in areas like public speaking, fundraising, advocacy, volunteer development, marketing, public relations, financial analysis and budgeting, strategic planning, nonprofit administration and program development. And so much more!
